

Permit No. 14.

March 7, 1917.

Cancelled

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE ALEUTIAN ISLANDS RESERVATION, ALASKA.

Under the provisions of Executive Order of March 3, 1913, establishing the Aleutian Islands Reservation, and in accordance with the regulations for the Aleutian Islands Reservation, Alaska, effective March 15, 1914, the Alaska Fishing Company, Unalaska, Alaska, is hereby authorized to take not to exceed one thousand (1,000) barrels of salmon in the vicinity of Unalaska Island and to sell the same either fresh or salted: Provided, That drag seines shall be used exclusively for the taking of the fish, and that all work in connection with the taking of the fish and their subsequent preparation for market shall be performed by Aleuts or Indians who are residents of the said reservation; And Provided further, That the permittee shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the Aleutian Islands Reservation (copies of which are attached hereto), as well as those that may be hereafter enacted or promulgated for such purposes.

This permit is not transferable, is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce, and automatically expires December 31, 1917. It is issued with the understanding that the permittee will forward to the Commissioner of Fisheries, Washington, D. C., not later than December 31, 1917, a report covering in detail all operations by virtue thereof.

Secretary.
